I would like it to be know that I support phone number portability between wireless carriers. We do it for our land lines, we also should be able to do it with our wireless phones.

Thank You